

GP 409-1106

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

RECEIVED

AUG 22 1994

GROUP 1100

Docket No. 0290112

In re application:
PETER J. JESSUP ET AL.Serial No. 08/077,243
Filing Date: June 14, 1993

GASOLINE FUEL

The Honorable Commissioner of
Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D. C. 20231

Dear Sir:

SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDMENT

In the above-identified application, the applicants request that the following amendment, supplementing their amendment delivered to the USPTO on April 28, 1994, be entered and considered by the Examiner:

Please cancel claims 86, 87, 90, 93, 97, 110, and 116 without prejudice.

Please amend claims 94, 98, and 99 as follows:

94. (Twice Amended) A method as defined in claim [93] 83 wherein the gasoline [is unleaded gasoline (1) with] has a Reid Vapor Pressure no greater than 6.8 psi and a maximum D-86 10% Distillation Point of [135] 140° F.

98. (Twice Amended) A method as defined in claim 91 [97] wherein the unleaded gasoline has [a Reid Vapor Pressure no greater than 6.8 psi,] a D-86 10% Distillation point no greater than [135] 140° F. [, and an olefin content less than 10 volume percent.]

P 30246 08/17/94 08077243 21-0175 030 103 1,716.00CH

99. (Twice Amended) A method as defined in claim 91 [97] wherein the unleaded gasoline has a Reid Vapor Pressure no greater than [6.5] 6.8 psi, a D-86 10% Distillation Point no greater than 130° F., and an olefin content less than 2 volume percent.